8,000 VISIT INTERSTATE FAIR ON LA CROSSE DAY

Sprinkling of Rain Did Not Interfere With the First Day's Success

RACES ON LATE THIS AFTERNOON

Secretary Van Auken and Associates are Pleased With the Prospect and See Success in Store With Fair Weather.

FIRST RACE RESULTS.

The first race this afternoon, the 2:20 trot for a purse of $500, resulted:

Axcyell won; Laura, second; O'Shea, third. Best time, 2:18¼.

Nearly every business house in the city is closed this afternoon and some seven or eight thousand citizens are enjoying La Crosse day at the Interstate fair. Not for years has there been so nearly a complete shut-down of business on a weekday. Even saloons are closed and the streets down town presented a deserted appearance throughout the afternoon.

Secretary Van Auken and his corps of assistants are well satisfied with the turn-out on the first day of the fair and the size of the crowd augurs well for the balance of the week if the weather is anywhere near favorable.

The sprinkle of rain during the early part of the afternoon did not scare out many people and even while the rain fell street cars going to the grounds were loaded and bus lines likewise did an enormous business.

This was not only La Crosse day but children's day as well and the schools were closed. It is estimated that some three or four thousand children were among those in attendance this afternoon.

"The Trail" opened this morning and reports from the grounds this afternoon indicate that all the shows did an enormous business. Most of the attractions are first class exhibitions and there are some novelties new to La Crosse fair goers.

The races this afternoon consist of the 2:20 trot for a purse of $500 and the 2:22 pace for the La Crosse stake of $1,000.

A Real Novelty.

The directors of the fair have hit upon a novel method of increasing the sale of their score cards in the brandstand. Each score card contains a sealed envelop. The holder of the lucky envelope containing the number secured a sack of the best flour. The winner of the flour today was E. E. Chaplin of 1226 Market street.

Interest is centering in the carnival features of the week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

2 CONVENTS HOLD $4,500,000,000

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 26. —The government have discovered that three convents alone hold four and a half billion dollars. An investigation was made during the last days of the war in order to see what money the government could rely on in last resorts.

TO BLOW UP TONS OF DYNAMITE IN SUEZ CANAL

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

PORT SAID, Sept. 26.—A serious stoppage of traffic of the Suez canal is threatened owing to the necessity for blowing up the steamer Chatham which sunk Sept. 6 loaded with dynamite. Divers Thursday will explode the dynamite by attaching a battery to the sunken cargo. It is not known how much mischief the explosive will do but it is necessary for commerce.

U. S. COURT BUSY WITH REDS TODAY

Childers' Case May be Delayed

JURY MUST HEAR EVIDENCE

In Secret, Then If Indictment is Returned He Will be Tried.

With 160 witnesses and 60 jurors on hand in addition to court officials and spectators, the opening of the September term of United States court this morning was marked by the largest attendance ever seen here.

Approximately one-half the witnesses are Indians. In silent mien characteristic of their race they hung around the corridors of the federal building all the morning, gazing stoically at the throng of palefaces that came and went. In the same sombre manner they will testify before the grand jury in cases where liquor has been sold to their tribesmen. When their work before the court is completed they will silently receive their pay and mileage from the clerk of the court and depart.

Inasmuch as these Indian witnesses are paid per diem Judge Sanborn will in all probability clean up the liquor cases as rapidly as possible, and no other cases may be considered the first two or three days of the terms.

Childers' Case Later.

The case against J. M. Childers, who is charged with assisting postoffice robbers Trainer and Cunningham to escape from the county jail may not come before the grand jury until the latter part of the term. The government has evidence and witnesses on hand and is ready to present its case whenever it is called.

The proceedings before the grand jury are secret and nothing of what is going on will be known by the public until indictments are announced after the jury has completed its deliberations.

If Mr. Childers is indicted he can demand an instant trial here or wait until the December term of United States court in Madison.

This is Judge A. L. Sanborn's first term of court in La Crosse. He was recently appointed to succeed Judge Romanzo Bunn, who was retired. Alfred Harrison of La Crosse is clerk of the court and F. D. Ried of Madison deputy. It is expected that court will be in session until next Wednesday.

AUSTRIAN PREMIER INSULTED MIDST WILD SCENES

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

VIENNA, Sept. 26.—The reassembling of the lower house of the reichsrath today was marked by disorderly scenes.

Tumultous scenes followed.

JURY IN HOFER CASE IS DRAWN

Miss Bertha Taylor Is in Court

THE PRIEST SEEMS NERVOUS

Serious and Sensational is Crime to be Threshed Out This Week.

After the venire of 36 jurors had been nearly exhausted a jury was this morning secured to try the case of the State vs. Rev. James Hofer, a Catholic priest charged with a serious crime against a girl of his parish.

In the back part of the court room sat the complaining witness, Bertha Taylor, a country girl, carrying in her arms a bundle which frequently emitted cries which necessitated much rocking and maternal care. With the girl were her parents.

The family resides on St. Joseph's Ridge, where Rev. Hofer presided as pastor of the hill church. The Taylor family resided a short distance away. The members did not attend the Catholic church, but became acquainted with Rev. Hofer. The girl alleges that the latter became very intimate with her and that a critical time came. The arrest of the priest followed. Subsequently he was released on bail and has been at liberty for some weeks awaiting trial.

Rev. Hofer seemed somewhat nervous.

ODD OLD LADY IS NOT INSANE

Aged Amelia Mashek Can Continue to Live With Her Chicks and Pigs

While she is 72 and odd in her ways, lives alone and does not want any one to come near her, Emelia Mashek is not insane. Neighbors of the woman made an application to have her examined for her sanity before Judge Brindley, and the result is that she was this morning declared sane and allowed to return to her home.

Old and feeble she lives alone in a stone house north of the "Klondike" saloon on the road to Salem. She has a few acres of land which she cultivates on a small scale and with a few chickens she manages to eke out a living, although none of the neighbors can understand just how. It was partly for her own good that they made the application to have her examined. They thought she would have a better home and be more contented at Mendota.

ARTILLERY GOES INTO CAMP ON THE FAIR GROUNDS; SHAM BATTLE

On the fair grounds the Seventh battery of the United States artillery will go into camp tomorrow noon, and until Thursday night will form one of the chief attractions, although being there simply as visitors.

Word was received this morning by local officers of the National Guard that the battery broke camp east of Sparta early this morning and started on the 36-mile march to La Crosse. Twenty-two miles will be made today, camp being pitched tonight at Salem The battery will arrive here tomorrow noon and go into camp on the fair grounds.

Western Indemnity of Chicago Promises Some Bad Disclosures

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—The receivership case of a number of policyholders against the Western Life Indemnity company began today in federal court. The defense denied continuance and filed pleas in abatement with general and specific demurrers.

Attorney Varnum filed intervening pleas for 21 petitioners having unpaid death claims against the company.

He said he knew of four hundred other unpaid claims aggregating over $450,000.

He charged the company with being insolvent and said "the fact the officers and agents accepted money from policy holders knowing the organization to be insolvent may lead to other interesting proceedings."

ARCHIE RUSSELL FALLS AND LOSES HIS LEG

Youthful Fireman Slips from Footboard of His Engine Under Passing Freight Train at Alma

Archie Russell, son of John F. Russell of 1909 Kane street, a fireman on the Burlington road, met with a very unforunate accident about seven o'clock this morning at Alma. He went out on the footboard of his engine, No. 1702, to extinguish the head light and while a stock train was passing on an adjoining track as he was about to put out the lamp, he slipped and fell to one side of his engine, his feet striking on the adjoining rail.

The toes of his left foot were also so badly injured so that amputation of one was necessary.

Immediately after the accident he was put in a caboose and Dr. Jahn of Alma who temporarily dressed the wounds accompanied him to Grand Crossing where his father got into the car with him, after which they at once proceeded to the hospital.

He is resting easily this afternoon.

DIES OF PARALYSIS AFTER LONG SUFFERING.

Mrs. Anna Knozowsky, 1002, St. Andrew street, died yesterday at noon after a lingering illness of paralysis with which she has been suffering for the past seven years. Deceased was 48 years of age.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Polish church on the south side, William Dwyer in charge. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

SHOOTS HIS WIFE; SHE MAY DIE

MANITOWOC, Wis., Sept. 26.—Mrs. Peter Bach, wife of a city bridge tender, was perhaps fatally shot yesterday afternoon and her husband is locked up charged with the crime. The police say that Bach admits firing three shots at his wife but says he did it in self-defense.

Mrs. Bach is shot in the arm and shoulder. The bullet that entered the shoulder is believed to have pierced her lung. According to the police, Bach went home intoxicated and began abusing his wife. It is believed, she defended herself and enraged him so that he used his pistol.

Manager Peter Riley of the W. B. U. football team received word yesterday that the games with the Winona normals and Winona high school have been cancelled. The high school team has decided to play nothing but Minnesota teams, but no reason was advanced by the normals for cancelling the engagement.

POLITICS ARE UNSETTLED

From the viewpoint of administration candidates for governor and other state offices, the political situation since the state fair has failed to clear up to any considerable extent, says the Milwaukee Sentinel. Reports indicate a constant widening of the breach between Gov. La Follette and Chairman Connor, resulting in an increase of activity, on the chairman's part, and more uncertainty in Madison official circles, as regard plans for the future.

The most interesting development since the meeting of politicians at the state fair comes from La Crosse, and is to the effect that Isaac Stephenson of Marinette, is still being trailed along as a senatorial possibility. The report is founded upon a visit between Isaac Stephenson and Levi Withee of La Crosse, occurring in the judges' stand at the fair grounds, and which attracted attention at the time. While Senator Withee refused to make known what the subject of their conversation was, according to the La Crosse report it concerned the senatorship.

It is asserted that Stephenson told Withee that Gov. La Follette did not want to go to the senate, but did want Stephenson to go, but was at a loss to bring this about. According to the report, Stephenson told Withee that if Gov. La Follette was sure of just how the legislature would act, a special session would be called and the senatorship decided in his favor. It was also intimated that there might be developments along this line that would demonstrate the governor's intention to deliver the senatorship to Stephenson.

The conference between these two veteran members of the republican party attracted no end of attention, and while Senator Withee refused to talk about the matter in Milwaukee, it would appear that he has been less reticent since his return to La Crosse, at least this is indicated by the report.

PAUL MATHEWS MAY ACCEPT IT

Bishop Coadjutor-elect Paul Matthews did not give the committee of three from the Milwaukee diocese a positive answer when it waited on him Monday at his residence in Cincinnati to urge his acceptance of the position to which he was unanimously elected by the diocesan council on Wednesday night last week. The fact that he did not decline and that he promised to consider the matter calmly and carefully led members to believe that he would become coadjutor bishop.

The chairman of the committee, the Rev. W. A. Smith, St. Paul's church, telegraphed to Bishop Nicholson yesterday afternoon, saying that he believed the Rev. Dr. Matthews would accept the office. From the tenor of letters received by Bishop Nicholson from the Rev. Dr. Matthews, he will not give his answer until he has come to Milwaukee and looked over the ground.

The Milwaukee churchmen are pleased at the developments which gives them greater encouragement than they had expected after hearing Bishop Nicholson express his doubts of the coadjutor's acceptance in his speech before the council on Wednesday night.

PORTAGE OFFICIALS HERE TO TESTIFY BEFORE COURT

Will Give Information to the Grand Jury, Probably Concerning Portage Sewers.

Mayor Zienert and Locktender James Clear went to La Crosse this afternoon, having been subpoenaed to appear and testify before the grand jury of the U. S. district court, says the Portage Democrat. Why this has been done is not known in Portage. It is supposed the U. S. government is about to institute proceedings against the city of Portage or the C., M. & St. P. Ry. Co. on account of sand run into the canal by a sewer and ditch at the railroad tracks at Ketchum's Point. The U. S. engineers have complained several times about this alleged obstruction of navigation.

"While I know nothing as to the object of the grand jury in calling these witnesses," said Judge W. S. Stroud, local attorney of the Milwaukee road today, "I am unable to see how any action can lie against the railway company or its officials or employes. They did not put in the ditch or sewer complained of—if that's the cause of these proceedings. The government has also complained of other sewers running into the canal in Portage, and possibly some or all of them may be involved."

BECAUSE THE DOG ADOPTED A MAN, HE'S ARRESTED

"Peg-Leg" Helt Sentenced to County Jail Because Lonely Dog Took Up With Him.

Because a lonely dog followed him and was eventually adopted in the absence of any claimant Frank Helt must spend thirty days in the county jail.

Helt, who is more commonly known as "Pegleg", having as the name implies, one wooden stub in place of a live limb, is a well known character around town. He has made his living at odd jobs around hotels and saloons for a number of years and has no steady home.

"Pegleg" avers that his kind heartedness is the cause of his downfall. A strange dog which he passed on the street looked after him with longing eyes and noticing the wistful look he called to it. Petting the canine the two soon became fast friends and the animal willingly followed him. Finally the owner found out where the dog was and Helt was arrested.

"Pegleg" doesn't care. He will be just as happy doing odd jobs around the county jail as he is hanging around the hotels and lodging houses. "Pegleg" was accompanied to jail by his pipe, his boon companion.

JURY DISCHARGED UNTIL OCTOBER IN CIRCUIT COURT

There will be no more jury cases in circuit court during the September term until October 30, the jury having been excused until that time.

Judge Fruit endeavored this morning to arrange for immediate trial of a number of jury cases on the calendar but all the interested attorneys either desired the cases continued or called later in the term. The jury will probably have two or three weeks more work to do in November.

TERRIBLY MANGLED IN FALL AT LA MOILLE QUARRY

Suffering with terrible injuries about his face, head and neck, Mat Tandeczka, a young man who resides in the eastern part of Winona lies at the Winona general hospital, as the result of a fall which he took while at work in the government quarry at La Moille yesterday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock.

Tandeczka was employed at a skidhooker at the quarry and was on a high platform at work when he lost his balance and fell striking on a pile of rocks some thirty feet below. The man struck on his face and was unconscious when picked up by his fellow workmen.

The U. S. steamer Alert was pressing into service and the injured man was brought to Winona in great haste. The boat arrived at 3:30 o'clock and the injured man was taken from the Diamond Jo dock to the hospital in an ambulance.

The man's injuries are of a very grave nature and may prove fatal.

It is said that Tandeczka is a cousin of the man who fell from the quarry exactly as Tandeczka did about two months ago and died in the Winona general hospital a few days afterwards.

MRS. KREMBS SAYS SHE DID NOT SHOOT

STEVENS POPINT, Wis., Sept. 26.—Mrs. William C. Krembs, who shot the restaurant proprietor, Clara Peterson, Saturday morning, pleaded not guilty and her bond was fixed at $5,000. The prisoner was remanded to jail. Miss Peterson's condition still is critical with chances in her favor.

Dr. George Powell, consulting physician and surgeon.

A. L. BLACK TENDERED A SURPRISE BY LODGE

A delightful surprise was given on A. L. Black and wife in Woodmen hall last night by the Fraternal Reserve association and Dana's band, the occasion being a farewell gathering previous to their departure for Duluth, where Mr. Black is about to enter the printing and engraving business.

The lodge was called to order by the president, Mr. Black, and after routine business an intermission was taken to prepare a candidate for initiation. Dana's band, of which Mr. Black is a member, had in the meantime quietly entered the ante-room and as intermission was declared struck up a lively air. It was a complete surprise to the president and his wife. Prof. F. H. Fowler then presented the couple with a handsome rocker in behalf of the lodge. Mr. Black responded feelingly. Following this an informal program was carried out, the band taking a prominent part. A banquet was served and the evening was most enjoyably spent.

In departing for their new home Mr. and Mrs. Black carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends whom they have made in this city.

TOMORROW W. B. U. DAY AT THE FAIR

Tomorrow, which promises to be one of the biggest days of the week, fair weather permitting, will be Wisconsin Business University day at the Interstate fair. The W. B. U. has a handsome display in the administration building and visitors are welcomed to inspect the various features of interest connected with the display.

The W. B. U. students will be given a holiday tomorrow for the purpose of attending the fair and promise to flock to the grounds in large numbers. Even today W. B. U. colors were much in evidence at the grounds, but tomorrow the yellow and black will be everywhere.

SUIT AGAINST INSURANCE CO. THROWN OUT OF COURT

Judge Fruit this morning directed a verdict for the defendant in the case of Frank Atkinson vs. the New England Life Insurance company, non-suiting the case on the ground that the plaintiff had no evidence to show that he had an exclusive contract for a year with the company or was employed as a district agent.

Mr. Atkinson sued for damages on a contract he had with the company which was cancelled a short time after being made. It was shown in the evidence that the contract called for no salary and that it was not made with the company.

CHILDERS' LAWYER SAYS HE WON'T BE INDICTED

Lemuel W. Gosnel, attorney for former Turnkey Merch Childers, who is under arrest charged with being a party to the liberation of Andy Cunningham and Earl Trainor, desperate postoffice robbers, in his care, declares his confidence that the U. S. grand jury, now considering Childers' case will not be able to indict him. Mr. Gosnell claims to expect the early release of his client. The federal authorities, seem just as confident that he will be indicted and brought to trial at the earliest expedient moment.

OPERATION TODAY.

Guy Atkinson of Grove street was operated upon for appendicitis at the La Crosse hospital Monday and is reported to be steadily improving today.

.. IT PAYS TO ATTEND THE FAIR.

The fair is on. It is a good fair. It represents material value to La Crosse. It brings hundreds of dollars to our merchants and businessmen, and enhances property values by advertising the city. It enjoys a large support from the surrounding territory, for it is a very good fair. This year it is better than ever.

But that alone is not sufficient. It should have the patronage of the people of this city. It should be given the material assistance as well as the moral support of this community.

What do you do?

Do you run a store? You should go to the fair, and you should so arrange that your family and employes may go.

Are you a manufacturer? You should see to it that your help as well as yourself is given a chance to go to the fair.

Do you labor for a living? Are you a clerk or an artisan? You should find time to put in at least one day at the fair.

To day was La Crosse day, the day of all days for La Crosse people to attend. But if you did not go, go one day. If The Tribune could have its way, every man, woman and child in the city would give one day's time to seeing the fair.

And it would not be a sacrifice; it would be an enjoyment and a profitable experience. It is a good fair. It will educate you in the commercial and industrial and agricultural affairs of the community in which you live. In a little talk before the Progressive association, John C. Burns said:

"Excursions out of La Crosse are all right, but what La Crosse people most need is excursions to La Crosse. How many of us know of the growth and activities of this city? A day's excursion about our factories and industrial institutions would be an awakening to most of us. If you have a day off, go on an excursion to La Crosse."

There was a solemn, sad truth in those remarks. We don't know enough about La Crosse and La Crosse county.

And by going to the fair, we can all take an excursion to La Crosse. It will please you, it will surprise you, it will profit you.

THE SAME OLD STORY

Testifying yesterday in the case of the eighteen railroads whose officials are subject to suit by the interstate commerce commission, President Stickney of the Chicago & Great Western railroad said that the packers make the rates, and that the business they control is so extensive that the railroads must submit to their demands. The packers play one road against another to force rates down, and get just what they want.

This is not exactly news. Robert M. La Follette, a citizen of Wisconsin of whom considerable has been printed hereabouts in the past few years, has said that these things were so; Journalist Russell said it in his famous "Greatest Trust in the World;" other railroads have squealed to this extent when under oath; local businessmen have said it to La Crosse newspaper reporters, with the injunction not to print it for fear of reprisals on their little businesses in which they are at the mercy of the packers and refrigerator lines. It isn't news.

But it is one of the things that constitutes the "big stick" with which monopoly drives its tired team. The common people are pulling this load. And, of late, the horses are getting balky.

President Stickney is one of the most fearless railroad presidents in the country; he is incurring the displeasure of the packers in thus telling the truth. But if he and others tell the truth, the oppression complained of will not have to be endured much longer.

THE IMPUDENCE OF DEBAUCHERY.

Twice in the last four years has it occurred in this city that vicious little boys have gone upon the witness stand and testified to immoral conduct of a nature to shock society. In each case the character of a young woman was involved. In each case the girl got what she deserved, and the boys went away feeling like devils of fellows.

It is about time for this sort of things to stop. Somewhere in the community there must be an official whose duty it is to prosecute conduct that constitutes a wrong against the peace and dignity and decency of the state. Since the last incident of the sort, there has been a general expression of resentment among the people of La Crosse. When it occurs again, official action should be taken to the end that there shall be no more brazen displays of dissolute conduct. Decency demands that the ears of our courts and juries shall not hear of these performances without being permitted to pass judgment upon the offenders. Good citizenship demands that displays of perversion shall not be permitted to set terrible examples to young people who may be led into wrong ways by the knowledge that the social evil bears no penalty.

THE REAL "KNOCKERS."

With a struggling fair on our hands, managed by men who have generously given their time and effort to making it a success, with that success in sight, but depending largely upon the outcome of the present season, two corporation newspapers have boycotted it because its officials declined to advertise to the extent demanded.

On top of this, there appears a tendency in the city council to further embarrass the association with large expenditures for desirable but not imperative improvements.

Go ahead gentlemen! That is the sort of selfishness and shortsighted policy that brings discredit upon a city and drives its institutions to other places. Go ahead, and put the fair out of business! And then prate about "splendid aggregations of intelligence and capital that are an honor to the dear people of our beautiful city."

QUIPPS & CRANKS & WANTON WILES

O where's the crowd all going
With their silk and velvet gowns?
O whither go the montebanks,
The soldiers and the clowns?
And whither go the pretty girls,
The boys and men, O where?
Well, if anybody asks you,
They're going to the fair.

"Did you see me hand it to the Cow-puncher and the Shitepoke last night—and that other time? Hot stuff, wasn't it? But I guess I ain't Foxy Grandpa for nothing.

"You see, I picked out two days upon which, because the fellows who were in the 'deal' with me and never advertise in The Knocker were running ads in my Common Stock Organ, I had more inches of advertising than they did. Then I pointed the finger of scorn at them and made a noise like a bunch of Common Stock.

I claimed the kibosh on them, and if anybody looked, they saw I had nosed them out. I didn't say anything about the many days between times when they had me beat two for one, and these fool people will never notice it. Me for a Foxy Grandpa.

"But I feel so discouraged at times, I could cry. With Little Pfide about to get the ta-ta, with my pardner down in the mouth and blaming me for living on the tailings of the 'ad' fanning mill, with The Knocker increasing daily in circulation and running ahead in the dullest season of the year, with the people all against me, with a pack of hungry fellows who have been easy marks wanting their money back, with the Common Stock market at rock bottom and going down, with bad luck for a year turning worse—with all these things, why wouldn't a man hate himself. But I'll sing a little for you:

"Gas Addicks was a foxy rat,
McCall is quite a shark,
And crooked Henry Rogers robs
Himself nights, after dark;
Old Pfister, he has touching ways
And never minds a lock;
But I set them all a record
When I copped the Common Stock.

"There, I always like to tell about that! I regard it as the master stroke of my dazzling career. But I must go now; I've got to write an editorial roasting the fair association, and clip the coupons I expected to get when we put the 'deal' through, and read The Knocker to see what it is handing me tonight, and—O, I'm so busy I just must go! Good night, Dear People of Our Beautiful City whose Aggregation of Intelligence and Capital I once hoped to get a corner on. Be good fellows and pay your light bills. Good night."

THE SHO-GUN COMING.

Henry W. Savage will offer in this city during the coming season one of the choicest of his musical productions, "The Sho Gun," a Korean comic opera by George Ade and Gustav Luders. This was one of the phenomenal successes of the past season and it is expected to duplicate its triumphs in the season now on.

JUST LIFE

A BOOZER'S SOLILOQUY.

I see alluring pictures in the rich foam of my beer,
I feel a real old boy—time thrill as I sip my mug of cheer;
And as I look the longer, the fantasies take form
And when I drink the stronger, I feel my heart grow warm.
From out the foam a figure steps and I'm lost in melody,
But I wake to find, the skate's unkind and I'm filled with jealousy.

I wake up in the morning and I wonder where I'm at,
On the dresser are my oxfords and a doorknob holds my hat;
My trousers neatly folded form a bed for my flattened purse,
I grab my head with shaking hand, and brewers loudly curse.
I wonder what the face was, that ambled from my beer—
And why when I recall the smile, I find it was a leer.

Perkins, the insurance magnate, calmly informs the investigating committee that in 10 years the New York Life alone will control $1,000,000,000 if it does not write another dollar's worth of business. As the Equitable and Mutual are the same style of grafters it is assumed that the three would control $3,000,000,000 without business and will probably control triple that amount with the ordinary run of business. The editor of the Era says:

"Can you conceive a greater danger to the republic than that a sum greater than the whole money supply of all the 80,000,000 population in actual dollars can be controlled and handled without recourse by a small coterie of men under a system of organized audacity and cunning for which it would be difficult to cite a parallel in history?"

DIETZ STILL HOLDS THE FORT AND DEFIES COMPANY

LADYSMITH, Wis., Sept. 26.—The latest in the Dietz case at Cameron dam, as given by his brother, W. W. Dietz, who was in Ladysmith yesterday, is that for a month or more no armed men have been in the neighborhood and that the only action by the logging company is the suggestion that the victor of Cameron dam would do better to settle for a small amount than be circumvented by the company by hauling the logs around the dam.

As to the proposition to haul the logs around Camern dam and thus beat John F. Dietz out of his toilage, W. W. Dietz says that it is impossible for the reason that without the use of Cameron dam the Thornapple river has not sufficient volume of water to float logs for nearly twenty miles.

There are about 19,000,000 feet of logs above the dam and those would have to be gathered up and hauled to the Flambeau river, twelve miles to the south.

The damage to the logs is estimated at from $100,000 to $150,000. In the meantime, John F. Dietz, his brother says, pursues the even tenor of life and was never happier.

PIANO MANUFACTURER'S INDUCEMENT; THE STRONGEST

Here's a Sale that Will Add to Our Reputation as Makers of Prices and Sellers of Qualities

SALE BEGAN THIS MORNING AT NINE O'CLOCK

Will be Pushed With all Force and Vigor at Our Command---We are Going to Give the People of La Crosse and Vicinity a Rousing Carnival of Piano and Organ Bargains.

The W. W. Kimball Co., established in 1857, with six mammoth factories in Chicago, Ill., employing 2,100 men and with a cash capital of $5,000,000, comprise the world's greatest manufacturers of pianos, pipe and reed organs and piano players. This old reliable concern at various periods in years past have held factory price sales in this city, greatly benefitting the piano purchasing community. On account of our financial position in the piano trade we are the first concern in this part of the country that have ever been able to secure an option on one of these great events. This time the sale is being held from our store, corner Fourth and Jay streets, where four carloads of these world renowned pianos have been installed, and our customers may now rejoice over this bit of good judgment when they read the following unusual low prices we are now in a position to offer them. This tremendous shipment includes the very latest exclusive 1905 model piano, in all the choicest woods, and each instrument has just left the factory inspector's hands, exemplifying the highest standard of piano value obtainable.

We make only the briefest mention of a few representive bargains:

Medium size oak, walnut and mahogany cased pianos, plain but finely finished, regular price, $250; sold this week at $185.

Full size elegantly designed pianos, in all the fancy woods, regular price, $275; going at $210.

High class colonial style, usually sold throughout the country for $300, sale price, $235.

Beautiful boudoir size, standard make, in all woods, $350 value. Several of this pattern may be had at $265. Swell drawing room upright, ordinarily sold at $375; our price, $285.

This week will not only commemorate the manufacturer's sale of the world renowned Kimball pianos at factory prices, but a final clearance sale of cancelled styles of various makes of new pianos, and used uprights returned from renting in our regular stock. Judge by the brands of values below:

Weber.
Sohmer.
Vose.
Cable.
Starr.
Lagonda.
Chickering & Sons.
Price & Teeple.
Kohler & Campbell.
Cable & Nelson.
Schaffer.
Wellington.

Remember this is the store where every instrument on sale is marked in plain figures and not sold on the old time "get all you can" plan.

There would be nothing extraordinary about these offerings if we could keep on selling such pianos at these prices but when this gigantic shipment is gone and our odds and ends cleaned up the opportunity ceases.

It occurs because we contracted with the largest manufacturer of pianos and organs in the world for this mammoth opening stock and hereafter will handle their entire business throughout our territory in Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin. It will pay you substantially to anticipate your need of an instrument now and take advantage of the truly wonderful low prices tomorrow.

Any man or woman can get installment credit here. We believe in the people and trust them to the limit.

Store open every evening during sale. Come before the best bargains are taken.

EMIL ROMANOWSKI KILLED IN THE WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Romanosky of 407 South Eighth street received word last night of the death of their son Emil, who was killed yesterday at Andover, S. D. No details of how he met his death were contained in the telegram.

The boy left the city two months ago to secure work in the west and the parents were ignorant of his whereabouts until the shocking news was received that he was dead. Emil Romanosky was employed as a packer at Salzer Seed company's plant while in the city.

The father left last night for Andover to bring the body to this city for interment.

TO WHOM CONCERNED.

I hereby notify all persons that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Alice Kroner, after this date, Sept. 25, 1905.

Signed,

CLAIM THROWN OUT OF COURT

The claim of F. Atkinson against the New England Mutual Life Insurance company for agency work was thrown out of court by Judge Fruit. It was shown to the satisfaction of the court that under Atkinson's contract with the company he was given the privilege of working in their interests on a commission basis and that he had nothing coming unless earned.

Sheridan Keen, Detective

A large audience witnessed the drama at the theatre last evening, given by the Winninger brothers. Tonight the play will be "Sheridan Keen, Detective." This drama is said to be one of the best in the Winninger repertoire and will undoubtedly attract a full house.

NEUMEISTER GETS PERMIT TO SELL BEER AT FAIR

At a special meeting of the common council last night William Neumeister, former alderman, secured a permit to conduct a refreshment stand on La Crosse street one block west of the fair grounds entrance, during fair week.

This was done by transferring a retail liquor license belonging to J. M. Grambling from 112 Pearl street to blocks 15 and 17 of Weber's addition to the city of La Crosse.

Alderman Emery objected to granting the transfer, citing a rule adopted some time ago which requires that every application for a license be referred to the alderman of the ward. It was explained that Alderman Bartl was out of the city and the resolution providing for the transfer was passed, Alderman Emery alone voting no.

Vance Delivers Farewell

Rev. W. H. Vance preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night. Henceforth he will devote his entire time to the duties of presiding elder of the La Crosse district. He will move from the parsonage at 231 South Eighth street this week and will reside in a new residence across the street.

Rev. J. W. Irish will arrive from Ashland this week and will preach his first sermon next Sunday.

MRS. LEFFINGWELL'S BOOTS COMES HERE OCTOBER 11.

The new comedy by Augustus Thomas, that Charles Frohman undertakes at the La Crosse theatre for Wednesday evening, Oct. 11th, is entitled, "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," and is described as a work of frolic throughout, with a vein of dramatic and human interest, strong enough to keep the whole consistent and palatable. Mr. Frohman's cast comes in for a liberal share of attention because of its excellent interpretation of the author's subtle humor and feints at seriousness in the climaxes. The play passed its first season in New York all last winter and led in bon ton patronage to continuously crowded houses. Honors were clearly shared by author and manager alike, the comedy appearing to be as well staged as it was well written.

RAILROAD'S FALL BUSINESS RUSHING

The rush of fall business has now begun on the railways running through La Crosse, the rolling equipment is practically all in service, and it is difficult to keep up with the demands. The new crop of grain has begun to go to market, but this movement is not so heavy as it will be a little later on.

It is a little early yet for the heavy movement of cattle, but it is beginning. On the Milwaukee & St. Paul road on Sunday seven special cattle trains passed through La Crosse eastward bound. In past years on this line it has been customary to leave these cattle trains very largely to Sunday and then rush them all through in the one day to the Chicago market.

LA CROSSE DEVELOPING MUSICAL TASTE.

"I was in La Crosse two weeks ago today when the first open air band concert was held in Myrick park," said J. Pothoff, at the Blatz. "Judging from the large attendance, I should say that musical taste has developed wonderfully in that city. I made inquiries and learned that the result was largely due to Mr. Dana, of Dana's band. The fine music at Christ Episcopal church, which has become celebrated all over the city since Organist Packman, an English organist, assumed control, has had its share in influencing the public taste."

WAR WOULD NOW BE DIFFICULT MATTER IN NORWAY

AGREEMENTS PRECLUDE POSSIBILITIES OF WARFARE.

Hague Article Comes First--An Arbitral Settlement.

Christiania, Norway, Sept. 26.—The agreement reached at Karlstad has been published here. The papers got out extras and crowds thronged the streets. The first impression formed was favorable to the agreement, but The Intelligenssedlern says that the result is really disappointing, and that the advantages which the arbitration treaty should yield cannot be equal to the concessions made by Norway. The Social Demokraten expresses the belief that the demands of Sweden have all been acceded to without Norway having gained any advantage. The arbitration provided for, it says, is so limited in scope that it can hardly be called arbitration.

Provisions for Arbitration.

That the scope of arbitration provided for by the treaty may be judged the first article, providing for arbitration, is herewith given in full in all its essential clauses. The article is divided into eight clauses, as follows:

"A. The two countries undertake to submit all matters of dispute to The Hague arbitration court which do not affect the independence, integrity or vital interests of either.

"B. In the event of a difference of opinion between the two countries as to whether a given question touches the vital interests of one of them the matter shall be submitted to the arbitration tribunal for decision.

One The Hague Court Doesn't Get.

"C. Disputes in regard to the interpretation of the method of carrying out the agreement to be arrived at in connection with the dissolution of the union shall not, however, be submitted to The Hague court."

D, E, F and G provide for the constitution of the court in accordance with the rules of The Hague convention, the exchanges of documents and who are qualified to act as arbitrators, etc. H provides that the agreement is to remain in force for a decade from the date of its signature. It may be extended for a similar period if it is not denounced by either party at least two years before the expiration of the term of ten years.

Article 2 establishes a neutral zone on each side of the frontier forever, which must not be used for war operations of any kind, nor any force be stationed therein except that necessary to maintain civil order; there must be no forts, war ports or army or navy depots in this zone, and all fortifications therein now must be dismantled or demolished, the latter including the Norwegian groups of fortifications at Fredriksten, with Gyldenloeve, Overbjergst and Weden and Hjelmkollen Oerje, with Kroksund and Dingsrud.

Norway is permitted to retain the "old" fortifications at Fredriksten, Gyldenloeve and Overbjerst, but not as fortifications, and the dismantling and demolishing must be completed within eight months of the ratifications of the treaty. The Konsvingers group of fortifications may not be extended, either as regards the erection of armaments or the garrison, which latter hitherto has not exceeded 300 men, not counting conscripts holding their yearly exercises, and new fortifications may not be erected within ten kilometers of the old fortress of Kongsvingers.

Here The Hague tribunal comes in again and it is provided that in case of disagreement as to the meaning of this last clause, diplomacy failing the matter shall be left to a Hague tribunal. It is provided with reference to the fortifications clause that it becomes effective immediately and cannot be set aside by one party to the treaty. Then there are articles giving the Lapslanders the privilege of pasturing reindeer on foreign territory, and again arbitration is to be invoked in case of differences. Article 4 regulates the transit of goods between the two countries and prohibits prohibitory import or export laws; this article stands for thirty years. Article 5 regulates the use of waterways in each country in which the other country may be interested, and this stands for fifty years, with an arbitration provision to settle disputes.

That the convention undoubtedly will be ratified by the Norwegian storthing and in all probability by the Swedish riksdag is the belief of The Aftenposten, which adds: "The independence of Norway has been won at the cost of some sacrifices which all of us would like to have been spared, but it must not be forgotten that the principal condition demanded by Norway, the dissolution of the union, has been attained."

Sweden Has No Kick Coming.

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 26.—Almost without a dissentient voice the people of Sweden, so far as can be judged by the opinion of the press here and elsewhere, accept with satisfaction the terms of the agreement between Sweden and Norway reached at Karlstad. The general opinion is voiced the Social Demokraten, which in its leading editorial this morning, says:

"Our principal objects—arbitration and the demolition of the frontier fortifications—having been attained we trust that everybody in both countries will recognize that the two Scandinavian peoples mutually need each other's friendship, and that the agreement will bring more happiness to both."

FIREBUGS WORK AT DARTFORD

DARTFORD, Wis., Sept. 26.—This place is highly wrought up over another fire at Grey Rock, the summer house of Edward Morris, the Chicago packer. Early yesterday morning the tenant house at Grey Rock was destroyed. There is every indication that the fire was the work of incendiaries.

Four Buildings and P. O. are Robbed.

MONROE, Wis., Sept. 26.—Burglars visited the village of Monticello, twelve miles north of here, last night, and broke into four buildings, including the postoffice. Breylinger's hardware store, Gempler's saloon, and Dave Klassy's restaurant were among those entered. They secured little booty for their trouble, the largest amount of money, $10, being taken from Gempler's saloon.

MILWAUKEE INSURANCE MAN IS A SUICIDE

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—William S. Kirkpatrick, agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee, committed suicide today by shooting. He suffered from melancholia.

SURGEON OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

RIPON, Wis., Sept. 26.—Dr. Edward C. Barnes of this city, assistant surgeon of the National guard, ranking as captain, has been appointed surgeon with the rank of major. Dr. Barnes was captain of Co. D of Ripon and served through the Spanish-American war at Porto Rico.

AUTOISTS ALMOST KILL FARMER; SETTLE.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 26.—A large automobile car, supposed to be owned by Milwaukee or Chicago parties, while racing with a southbound Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha interurban electric car late Sunday afternoon, struck a farm wagon near the subway north of this city. August Johnson, his wife and another woman, were thrown high into the air and landed in a ditch, while the wagon was capsized and wrecked, the horse nearly killed and the automobile damaged. One of the women was rendered unconscious, but the other one and Mr. Johnson escaped with cuts and bruises. The four parties in the machine escaped injury. The owner of the machine settled for all damages, but refused to give his name.

Yates Won't Succeed Fifer on Commerce Commission

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 26.—Concerning the rumor that former Governor Fifer was to resign from the interstate commerce commission and Governor Yates was to be named in his place, the later today made denial.

BLACKMAILER USE CLUB ON A WOMAN.

New York, Sept. 26.—Irene Grossman, a girl of 16 years, was found clubbed into insensibility in the hallway of her home on West One Hundred and Forty-second street. The attack was the culmination of a series of nightly entries to the Grossman home to enforce by "black hand" methods payments for immunity from attack. Beginning Friday night a negro visited the house nightly, appearing only to Miss Grossman and escaping when frightened by her screams.

Despite the lookout set for him by the family, he succeeded in reaching Miss Grossman before she had time to give a warning. The girl's brother told the police that his sister har started for an early morning walk when she was attacked. He heard her scream and ran into the hallway, where he found her unconscious, but saw nothing of the man. Immediately after the clubbing the police found two pictures in the Grossman home with their faces turned to the wall and notes demanding money written on the backs.

On the back of a photograph of Mrs. Grossman was written: "We expect $800 from you. B. F. C." On the back of one of her daughter's pictures was written in the same hand: "We expect $200 from you. B. F. C." In the two previous visits to the house the burglar had stolen several valuable pictures and more than $400 worth of silverware.

CANADIAN AUTHORITIES TO SINK POACHERS

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 26.—The department of marine and fisheries has referred to the imperial government the question of supplying the Canadian cruiser Vigilant with quick-fire three-inch guns. Officials here believe that under the Rush-Bagot treaty of 1817 they can ship guns of that size, but it has been considered desirable to consult the imperial government before the taken the step.

If the answer from London is favorable four quick-firing three-pounders will be at once forwarded from Halifax and placed on board the Vigilant on Lake Erie, and decisive steps will be taken to stop the wholesale poaching by fishermen from the United States.

OMNIGRAMS!

Many a Want Advertisement is, essentially, a telegram—turned to an Omnigram; a message of extreme importance to some one person, but which in order to search out the person, has to be made a "message general," or an Omnigram, addressed to EVERYBODY.

The housewife knows that, somewhere in the city, there is to be found an available servant girl—and if she knew her address she would send her a telegram. Not knowing it she sends her an Omnigram—puts her message in a want advertisement, to be read by all servants looking for places, thus reaching the right one, the "available" one, by also reaching a few "wrong ones."

The man who has a horse to sell—or a cow, a city lot, a bond, a piece of machinery, a bicycle, a step ladder or a store, knows that in the city or near it, lives THE ONE BEST BUYER—the man to whom he can sell to best advantage. Again, a telegram would be quicker, or a trip to see him, if he knew the address. But, as he does not, he must put his offer, his message, into the form of a want advertisement, and trust to the far-reaching effects of an Omnigram.

You should find twice as many uses for Omnigrams as for telegrams--and if you do not, you are overlooking some of the "tricks of prospering"

"EASY BOSS" TELLS REPORTER HOW HE CAN SMOOTH EDGES.

Tells Populace Not to Worry but to Figure Out the Best.

Chicago, Sept. 26. — "Philosophy, my boy," said Senator Thomas C. Platt, of New York, as his special car, Courier, rolled out of Joliet for Chicago, "is the cure-all of every evil life has. When discontented with any situation, philosophize. Think it over; be judicial with yourself. You can't have any too close communion with yourself at any time. When you are able to talk to yourself freely and to analyze things, you are a true philosopher. Contentment and happiness will then be yours. I'm a philosopher."

Body Feeble; Mind Active.

On arrival in Chicago the Courier was switched to the Union station and left there at 3:15 p. m. for New York. He then will have completed a western journey of more than 11,000 miles, in which he looked over every property in which he or his associates are interested. Senator Platt's body is feeble—his invalid chair is at his command in his private car—but his mind is extremely active and his eyes bright and clear. He was willing to talk on some subjects, and Mrs. Platt listened intently to every word he uttered.

Intends to Wear Out.

In response to a query as to his health he said: "I am on my way back to New York to be just as active in the affairs of that state as I ever have been. You had an editor in Chicago, Joseph Medill, who once said, I believe, that he never intended to rust out. He was right. I don't intend to rust out. I mean to be active to the last minute of my life, and I rather think that I have a number of minutes left. My mind never felt better."

HOW TO FACE CRITICISM

Especially That of the Newspapers—Philosophize, Says the Senator.

Getting back to philosophy the senator said: "The newspapers sting a public man. Some of the things they print are true, many never should be published. How are you going to face it since you can't successfully reply? Philosophize. You hold public office and your motives are impugned, although you may have tried to be honest with every interest involved. My advice is not to talk back, but to philosophize. Reason it out with yourself and when you are satisfied that you have done all you can do that is fair to all be content. That is the secret of contented living that I have learned through a long life."

The senator's attention was called to the revelations in connection with the New York insurance companies, but he was guarded in his comment. "We are too prone to believe ill of any one or of any enterprise if any one sets afloat a suspicion," he said. "That is something as Americans we have got to correct in our natures. I don't believe in shielding wrong, but at the same time too much slander is now afloat in regard to many legitimate enterprises to be good for the whole country. I believe in being careful before I form a judgment, and that judgment is not going to be formed on gossip.

"If you are going to publish anything of what I have said to you make this plain: That the whole American people need to be more calm in forming their judgments. They have been too hasty in the past. While bad men may have got into public life, as they do into private life, every public man is not a bad man, and I believe most of them are striving to be just to the public as well as to the other interests they may represent.

"My wife and myself have received delightful courtesies on all of this trip, and I have been glad to meet and know more than I ever did before of your great west. You are building a remarkable empire west of the Missouri, an empire in which every financier and corporation of the east is now virtually interested. The character of your people is splendid."

If you can't boost, don't knock!

WOMAN SUICIDE ASKS TO BE ALLOWED TO DIE.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.—A mysterious woman who says she is from Chicago, who tried to end her life by shooting herself, is improving at a local hospital. She declares her husband and all her relatives are dead. "Let me die, too," she pleads with the physician. "There is no one to notify. I am ready to die."

She has said her name is "Mary Martin," and "Mary Hart." Neither name is believed to be correct, but she steadfastly refused to give any other or to tell which she claims to be the right one. Her attempt at suicide took place in Fairmont park. The Philadelpaia police have notified the Chicago force and asked co-operation in clearing up the mystery that surrounds the woman's identity.

EQUITABLE RUNS A CAFE, AND MORTON IS SORE

New York, Sept. 26.—Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, has made a statement with reference to the society's ownership of the Cafe Savarin, the restaurant in the Equitable building. The statement follows: "There is nothing new or sensational about the Cafe Savarin. There has been no change in its relation to the Equitable society, which now owns and operates it. I do not like the idea of the society being in the restaurant business, but it is a condition that I found and we will have to continue the business until I can make other arrangements.

It will be my effort to get the society out of the business, although, in lieu of rent, the Cafe Savarin is now netting the society profits which approximate what the rent ought to be. No officer, director or employe of this society is interested in any way in the profits of the cafe."

WHEAT The movement of Spring Wheat to market is now in full swing and materially exceeds that of last year. The Canadian crop is being shipped in large quantities, and exerts a heavy pressure on the absorbing power of foreign markets. Under these circumstances, one would naturally look for a lower price level, but, in spite of free movement, buying by outsiders has been of sufficient strength to give the market a rather stiff undertone.

We are looking for, and for some time have expected, that the pressure of new wheat would cause some decline, and with this idea in view we believe traders should be prepared to take advantage of bulges and hard spots to make sales for moderate turns.

The Canadian wheat crop, while large, is not so great an item as to dominate the permanent course of prices, but before its influence is spent it will probably prove of enough importance to depress prices in American markets to a point where good purchases may be made for a long pull. Our idea in counseling the selling side lately is based merely on temporary conditions.

HUNTERS ARE OFF FOR CHICKENS NOW.

WHAT YOU CAN SHOOT.

Iowa—Prairie chickens or pinnated grouse until December 1, squirrels until January 1, wild ducks, geese, snipe and brant until April 15.

South Dakota—Prairie chickens, grouse of any variety, woodcock or quail until January 1; plover or curlew until May 15; beaver or otter, killed or captured until May 1.

Minnesota—Turtle dove, snipe, prairie chickens, pinnated, white breasted or sharp tailed grouse, woodcock, upland plover and golden plover until November 1; wild duck of any variety, wild goose, brant or any variety of aquatic fowl until December 1.

North Dakota—Prairie chickens and grouse, any variety, woodcock until October 15; wild duck, goose, brant, or crane until May 1; quail, English or Chinese pheasant or wild swan until October 15.

The lid is off in the best hunting states of the northwest!

Once more a man can dine like his American ancestors on the game brought down with his own arrows. A dinner can be perfected with rare roast beef, domestic duck stuffed with onions, clams on the shell, spatchcock or anchovy on toast, the appetite can be whetted with half a dozen stimulants, but such things are the end of a hollow mockery. What a man wants is some prairie chicken, brought down with the gun of a friend who has the time and inclination to go up into the fields of South Dakota, or along the fences of Nebraska, and stir up a meal. Friends can keep you in game now. The days of leanness are past. There is corn in Egypt again.

How to Pay for License.

Not only can you have game, but you can make enough to pay your expenses by bringing back among your dainty quail, a few polecat, mink or otter pelts. All these things you are allowed to do, according to the just and beneficent laws of Nebraska, Iowa, South and North Dakota and Minnesota.

But you must not let gross commercialism enter into the sport or the game wardens will assess you a few "williams" that will make the game rather expensive. In Iowa no game must be killed for traffic, and you can't kill more than twenty-five birds in a day. The law considers that a load and you will be governed accordingly. nI South Dakota, where the fields are wide, unfenced and the birds are apt to be thicker than mosquitoes in New Jersey, you must limit your shooting to fifteen birds a day.

Where and How to Go.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway has issued a neat booklet of the game laws of the states in the northwest, giving the laws in detail, which will save you from troubling your friends to get you out of jail, if you secure and study it as you would your time table and expense account. F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, will send you a copy if you write to him for it. Many hunters are now going to South Dakota and the baggage cars on the morning trains into the Dakotas had little room for trunks or coffin boxes, being entirely occupied by a dozen different varieties of dogs.—Sioux City (Iowa) Tribune.

FRANK DANIELS TO APPEAR HERE IN GREAT PLAY

The libretto of Frank Daniels' newest farce, "Sergeant Brue," is by Owen Hall, who was responsible for the book of "Florodora," "The Geisha" and many other musical pieces. It is in three acts and is said to open up a mine of comic possibilities. As a regulation London policeman Mr. Daniels is alleged to be at his best and to give a performance that is altogether enjoyable. The company is now at the Illinois theatre, Chicago. The La Crosse engagement is on Oct. 5th.

LA CROSSE COUNTY GETS $14,533 FOR INSANE

The state board of control has completed the auditing of accounts for the fiscal year for the care of chronic insane patients in county asylums, for the care of acute insane patients in the two state hospitals, for the care of inmates of the state home for the feeble-minded and for the care of boys in the state industrial school for boys at Waukesha. The basis of calculation for the maintenance of insane patients is $3 a week ofr each patient, of which the state pays half and the other half is charged against the country in which is the legal residence of the patient. Thus counties operating insane asylums receive from the state $1.50 a week net for their own patients, this coming from the state, and for patients from other counties they receive $3 per week for each patient, all coming from the state, but half being charged back by the state against the counties from which the patients come. For patients confined in the state hospitals the state receives $1.50 net for each patient from the county sending the patient. The rate for patients in the home for the feeble-minded is the same. Transportation and clothing bills are paid by the counties whence the insane or feeble-minded patients come. The state receives $1 per week from these counties for each inmate of the industrial school for boys.

La Crosse county will receive $14,533.57 from the state for the care of its insane.

LILY ON HER LAST TRIP

Lamplighter Carlisle, who has charge of the lights on the river in the district between Winona and La Moille, reports that the lighthouse boat Lily has left St. Louis on her last trip of the season up the river. The boat departed from St. Louis on September 5, but the trip up is slow on account of the numerous stops to be made to provide the different lamplighters with oil and supplies. Mr. Carlisle does not anticipate that the boat will reach here much before the first of October. Supplies sufficient are being left to keep the river lights running for the remainder of this year to the 15th of November, and along into May in the spring, which is about the time the Lily will get up on its first trip next year.

GIRL RESTORED TO MOTHER AFTER 12 YEARS

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26.—As a result of a newspaper story, Ora Averson, who claims she was deserted by her foster parents in Madison on Friday, has again joined her mother, Mrs. Bert Shaw of Roscoe, Ill., who has searched for twelve years for her daughter over four states and spent thousands of dollars.

When her mother was ill the father placed Cora and two other children in a home foundling school at Chicago.

In an effort to find Cora, Mrs. Shaw was divorced from her first husband. The other two children were found years ago.

Veteran Editor Is Dead

WATERTOWN, Wis., Sept. 26.—David Blumenfeld, the veteran editor in Wisconsin and an influential democrat in Dodge and Jefferson counties, died of Bright's disease at his home in this city last night, at the age of 77 years. He was one of the oldest and best known German editors in point of service in Wisconsin. At the time of his death he was editor of the Watertown Weitbuerger.

Dr. George Powell, consulting physician and surgeon.

KILLS HIS FAITHLESS WIFE AND SHOOTS HER LOVER

SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 26.—Mrs. Edward Dutchy of Allouez is dead and Julius Blyenberg of that camp is at the Superior hospital in a critical condition as a result of the vengeance of the husband of the woman. Both were shot late Saturday night.

Edward Dutchy, the man who did the shooting and husband of the woman, is under arrest at the county jail. Amey Langreet, a man whom Dutchy declared he would have shot at the same time if he could have been found, also is in custody. Dutchy claims that Langreet and Blyenberg alienated the affections of his wife.

Langreet recently eloped with Mrs. Dutchy and returned on Saturday. The return was the signal for Dutchy's summary vengeance. He found Blyenberg in a saloon and shot him. He then went home and killed his wife. He says he intended to find Langreet, kill him and then turn the weapon on himself.

PINGLE IS ARRESTED FOR MURDER

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 26.—Edward Pingle has been bound over to the circuit court without bail on a charge of murder in the first degree. He is accused of killing Daniel A. Doyle of New Auburn. They had some trouble over a contract to cut hay.

DENIES CHARGES IN ANSWER TO CHAS. PFISTER SUIT.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 26.—The answer of Horace A. J. Upham, one of the defendants in the libel suit brought by Charles F. Pfister against Free Press directors, was served yesterday. Mr. Upham, by his attorneys, W. J. Turner and W. E. Black, in his answer admits that the Free Press has a large circulation, that the defendants named are directors of the Free Press company, and that he has usually attended the meetings of the directors, but denies all of the allegations set forth in Pfister's complaint in which he demands heavy damages.

A SPECIAL IN THE FIELD OF ARTISTIC DRAMA

"Her Only Sin," which comes to the La Crosse theatre on Saturday, Sept. 30, matinee and night, is Lincoln J. Carter's latest effort in the field of artistic drama and from the flattering press comments and public approval, bids fair to eclipse all of his previous record-breaking plays. There is much to be said about this play that is good and nothing too laudatory can be spoken of for its intrinsic value. A beautiful array of scenery coupled with an exceptionally fine cast, leads one to believe that this will be one of the best attractions that will appear here this year.

Night prices, 10, 20, 30 and 50c. Matinee prices, 10 and 20c.

The police made a raid on possible haunts of hoboes between the city and La Crescent yesterday and advised a large party found near the village to move on. On the way back a tramp laden with a goodly supply of booze evidently intended for the gang at headquarters was taken in tow and locked up at central police station. He was liberated this morning.

If it is better to KNOW THINGS about prices than to guess and wonder and fret, then it is WORTH WHILE to read the ads.

A FITTING TRIBUTE

To the exalted purity and character of Gund's Peerless Malt and Hop Brew is in, the sentiment expressed crowning

GUND'S PEERLESS BEER

"THE BEST IN THE WEST."

This position of commanding superiority is the achievement of 50 years of honest effort devoted entirely to the science of brewing, and which has evolved the Gund Natural Process, under which Peerless is produced, giving it a character and individuality that has never been attained by any other American beer as evidenced by the Gold Medal for purity, age, strength and excellence of flavor, given to Peerless by the Superior Jury of Awards at the St. Louis World's Fair, 1904. Therefore, as a discriminating drinker, you will demand a satisfying beer which is found in Peerless. A trial will carry satisfaction to your palate and conviction to your heart.
